

Camper Character Contract

At Creative Camps (hereafter “CC”) we are proud to provide creative, fun, challenging, and safe camp experiences for your kids. We will have only a short time to know your students, so it is imperative that all our campers and staff practice the values of kindness, respect, responsibility, and honesty while at camp. Please read the following Camper Agreement with your child, and sign at the bottom of the page:

Camper Agreement:

1. I will follow the rules of the summer camp, and practice kindness, respect, responsibility, and honesty while I am a camper.
2. I understand my instructors will also practice kindness, respect, responsibility, and honesty while they teach me lots of cool stuff.
3. I am accountable for my own behavior and making positive choices for everybody. I am also accountable for any poor choices I make that make learning less fun for everybody.
4. I have thought about and discussed with my parents the values of kindness, respect, responsibility, and honesty.
5. If I can't follow the rules or practice kindness, respect, responsibility, and honesty, I will be removed from camp, without a refund, to protect the positive experience of the other campers.

Parent Agreement:

1. I wish for my child to attend CC as a camper, and I have discussed the camp rules and character values with my child.
2. My child and I both agree to follow the rules and practice the values, and understand that the refund policy is: no refund is given if the child is removed from the camp for disciplinary reasons.
3. I understand that if my child has special needs, I need to share them with the staff, who are trained and experienced in dealing with a wide range of behaviors. However, if my child requires more attention than staff can fairly provide in a summer camp setting, I will provide assistance for the teacher to ensure a successful camp experience for all of the children. Further, if my child has special needs that cannot reasonably be accommodated in a short summer camp experience, I may be asked to remove my child from the program.
